GF Management Affiliate to Manage the Ramada Plaza Hartford Downtown
Crowne Plaza Becomes the Ramada Plaza Hartford Downtown
Through a Multi-Million Dollar Improvement Project

PHILADELPHIA, PA – GF Management, one of the nation’s premiere hospitality management and development companies, announces that its operating affiliate, HARC Associates, LLC, has been named manager of the newly named Ramada Plaza Hartford Downtown, located in Hartford, Connecticut. HARC Associates assumed management of the Hotel on Wednesday, September 28, 2011.

The new Ramada Plaza Hartford Downtown Hotel recently announced its conversion from a Crowne Plaza. Rick Henrikson, Senior Vice President of Operations for GF Management stated “Thanks to the advanced preparation and hard work of our transition team, in conjunction with the existing property staff, the management transition and flag change was seamless with no disruption in operations.”

To complement the conversion, the 350-room Hotel has begun a multi-million dollar improvement project which includes extensive property renovations. The improvement project will include thorough renovations to the guest rooms and suites, new furniture, new carpeting, flat screen TVs with expanded programming and much more. These renovations improve on an already excellent service experience which includes free high-speed Internet, local area shuttle service, a 24-hour business center, 24-hour fitness center, nearly 9,000 square feet of event space and on-site dining. With the expanded amenities and modern renovations, the Hotel will now offer convention, business and leisure guests the most state-of-the-art hotel in downtown Hartford, CT.
